

FROM THE EAST

FEBRUARY 2014

My Brothers

I am greatly honored to be chosen by you the craft to be your Worshipful Master for 2014. I hope that we have a fun filled and exciting year.

Our Second meeting in February which will be on the 18th, we will hold our First EA degree for the year. Please attend and help make the new members feel welcome.

On Saturday, February 15th at New Smyrna Lodge No. 149 starting at 8:00 a.m., there will be a Zone ME and MLT Workshops. These are VERY important for those members that wish to become Lodge Officers to take part in. Plus we will be holding classes each month for those members wanting to complete the ME I,II,or III classes. Our first class was held January 26 and was well attended.

March or April will be one first of two open meetings where we are inviting the Scottish Rite and York Rite to come and give a presentation on their organization and take questions from the craft. I hope you will all turn out and show your support, and bring a few friends. If you are looking at joining or thinking about one of these great organizations come and learn what they are all about. In the next Trestle Board I will have the confirmed dates.

EOLA NEEDS volunteers to help man the polls in the March and November elections. We as a lodge have an opportunity to jump start the years fundraising needs with this event. ALL money will go directly to the building Fund for the many projects we have slated to improve and clean up the Lodge. Please contact the Senior Warden Frank Hudson for information and details.

Thank You, and see you around the Lodge.
Roy Campbell, Worshipful Master
