

FROM THE EAST

My Brothers

Another great month has passed, we had 3 brothers pass their EA proficiency during our last meeting in May. This has set up a Fellow Craft Degree that will be held on the fourth Tuesday - June 24. Please notify the Junior Warden if you wish to assist in this degree.

Over Memorial Day weekend, Grand Lodge was in town at the Rosen Plaza Hotel. I would like to thank our Senior Deacon Troy McQuagge, and Brother Steve Soto who assisted me in transporting the Alter and Lodge furniture to the Rosen Hotel on the Thursday prior to Grand Lodge for use during the Grand Communication. They were also a big help in assisting in unloading the truck from Grand Lodge with temperatures hitting 93 outside. I would also like to thank our Junior Warden, Gaston Texier for assisting myself and the young men from Demolay, and others from around the Proud 17th District in setting up the Lodge Room at about 9:30 Sunday night the night prior to Grand Lodge. Following Grand Lodge and the Installation of the new Officers for Grand Lodge, Troy, and Gaston were again extremely helpful in assisting me in bringing all the Lodge furniture back home to EOLA. I thank you very much for your assistance.

Please join me in Congratulating our new DDGM R.W. Johnnie Brock, and new District Instructor R.H. Donald Goolsby, WM of St. Cloud Lodge. I would also like to congratulate our Junior Warden Gaston Texier in being appointed a District 17 Committeeman for the new year. Eola wishes you all the best and are always there to assist you in anyway needed.

Next time your at Lodge please take a moment to see the pavers that were installed out front, these were apart of Composite Lodge and it is an honor to have them re-installed at EOLA.

Please remember to bring in your canned food goods for the food drive!! We are delivering them to the Russell Home the second week of June. Please help this worthy cause. Remember it doesn't cost anything extra from your food budget if you take advantage of the Buy One Get One Free items at you supermarket.
