

FROM THE EAST

My Brothers

Well summer is here - even if it is sometimes refereed to as the lazy days of summer and a time for fun in the sun and vacations. We at EOLA are are not slowing down at our the last meeting in June we saw four brothers - Michael Baughn, Paolo Dias, Samuel Glover, Eric Davila and John Cruz from Orange Blossom 80, raised to the degree of Fellowcraft. The degree team did an excellent job conferring the degree. Congratulations to both the new Fellowcraft brothers and the Degree team.

The last meeting in July which will be July 15th will be an open meeting where we will have the honor of having members of the National Sojourners present to present their program "The Building of the Flag" and also "The Toast to the Flag". As part of our salute to the birth of this great nation. Please make plans to attend this meeting as it is a spectacular program and a great way to salute our heritage. Being an open meeting means BRING your friends, neighbors, and of course your significant other, as this gives them a chance to see what you are apart of, and a little about Masonry. Who knows we make get a few new members !!

Meanwhile back at the Lodge, we were finally able to schedule and complete without any schedule conflicts (an amazing feat in it self) the extermination needed in the Lodge. We are now in the process of getting an final estimate for the garage conversion and meeting storage room conversions. Once completed, I will be contacting each body to see about contributing towards the cost of this renovation project. With a completion date set for later this year.

Last however not least. There is one area that we as members of this lodge need to step up that is participation in school of instruction that is held twice a month through out the district and also Masters and Wardens which meets the first Saturday morning of each month. Brothers this is a great time to polish your floor work in the degree's, improve your catechism, and improve your proficiency. Masters and Wardens is a meeting where the Officers of all the Lodges meet and discuss what they have going on in the weeks and months ahead.

Thank You my brothers and I will see you around the Lodge !!!

Roy Campbell, Worshipful Master
