

FROM THE EAST

My Brothers

Welcome to the dog days of summer. The next few months are going to be very busy at EOLA:

We will be honored to have the DDGM Johnny Brock visit us on Sept 2.

We have a Master Mason Degree scheduled for September 30. Plus an EA degree date to be determined.

Then on October 21 we will have our third and last open meeting for the year, this one will have a presentation by the Ladies of Eastern Star, and the Amaranth.

Plus the Sojourners will be returning to do a history of our flag presentation.

We will be dark the first meeting in November due the polls being open and EOLA being a precinct.

The Past Masters and Widows dinner is coming up also in October.

So please start marking your calendars to attend a meeting and catch the excitement.

Please help Eola meet our commitment for Let Your Pennies Make Good Cents, by dropping off all your loose change in the glass jar in the lobby.

It all goes to the Masonic Retirement Center in St. Petersburg FL. Help a great cause and maybe even your future!

See you around the Lodge

Roy Campbell,
Worshipful Master
